

As subscribers to XM satellite radio we have found the value added service of the ability to receive up to date traffic & weather information a valuable benefit. This allows my daily adjust my daily commute if necessary and/or alternative routes. This is a service that I am paying for and feel XM Satellite radio has the right to provide this service. Therefore I am asking the FCC to seriously consider rejecting NAB's petition 04-160.